MUIT Enablers

Transcendental Meditation : TM

Transcendental Meditation (TM) refers to a specific form of silent mantra meditation that boost learning ability and creativity, improve brain functioning, and reduce stress and anxiety. His Holiness Maharishi Mahesh Yogi ji introduced the TM technique and TM movement in India in the mid of 1950.

It is reported to be one of the most widely practiced, and researched meditation technique, with various published research studies.

TM induced distinct physiologic changes and a novel state of consciousness in practitioners. The significant benefits of practicing Transcendental Meditation are:

- Reduced stress and anxiety
- Improved sleep
- Greater sense of clarity and productivity
- Lower Blood Pressure
- Greater sense of calmness throughout the day
- Reduced cortisol
- Lower risk of heart attack or stroke
- Improved brain function and memory

The practitioners are therefore able to function at a high level of awareness and productivity, increasing their overall focus and improving their relationship to work as well as to their own well-being.

We all in the MUIT learn and practice the Transcendental Meditation (TM) technique for personal growth on a regular basis as an integral of curriculum delivery for developmental studies. This creates a supportive and cohesive environment to the development of full potential and a high quality of life for its students.

Collaboration with Montserrat College of Art, USA

The Montserrat College of Art in Massachusetts, USA, was founded in the late 1960s by a working creative professional, at a time when people were questioning the status quo and looking for new solutions. Montserrat College of Art provides an individualized education focused on maximizing the professional and personal success of each student, structured around experiential learning, studio practice, liberal arts, and professional preparation. In the early years, Montserrat School of Visual Arts, as it was called, offered a professional diploma in the same studio concentrations for which it is known today. By the 1980s, this still young Massachusetts art school was accredited and granted the authority to award a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. With that milestone came a new name: Montserrat College of Art. This is an accredited, non-profit, independent art school, accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design and by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc., through its commission on institutions of higher education, to award the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree.
