About Marwar Muslim Educational & Welfare Society

On the auspicious occasion of foundation stone laying ceremony of "Umed Bhawan Palace" on 21 November 1929, it was announced by His Highness Shri Umed Singhji, the erstwhile ruler of the Jodhpur state, that the society shall be provided with a suitable school building and Marwar Muslim Education Society was established in 1929 with the primary object of running the school and promoting modern education in the Marwar Region.

Construction of the "Darbar Muslim School" building was started on 6 February 1934 and was inaugurated by His Highness Maharaja Umed Singhji on 18 February 1936. Unfortunately, the Government took over the assets of the school after the independence. The Society struggled hard to get justice for the community and with the efforts and Government of Rajasthan allotted 5 acres of land for the construction of a new school building.

On January 2, 1981, the foundation stone of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Muslim Senior Secondary School was laid down on the allotted land. On 11th Sep. 1988 school was inaugurated. Since then the society is continuously stepping forward and achieving its target in the field of education as well as realizing to consequences, many welfare programmes to serve the society.

Marwar Muslim Educational & Welfare Society(1929) with the mission to ameliorate the cause of education among weaker section of the society in general and Muslim in particular started its work from grass root level and now runs total number of 31 institutes which includes six schools of different levels, two B.Ed colleges, post graduate nursing college, industrial training institute, hospital, ambulance service and shariah bank.
